Protection

A new car is one of the biggest investments you'll make. And when the time comes, protecting that investment can add thousands of dollars to your resale or trade-in value. Protect your vehicle's most vulnerable surfaces—paint, seat fabric, carpeting, leather, and vinyl with Appearance Protection from Total Care Auto Powered by Landcar.

The exterior of your vehicle will be protected with ResistAll[®] NG2[®], a chemical with state-of-the-art technology that seals the microscopic pores in the surface of the clear coat providing the ultimate protection from the environment. Interior fabric protection binds to fibers preventing those unwanted stains from setting in. Interior leather and vinyl protection helps keep all surfaces looking brand new.
